

PARENT AND SUPPORTER CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct has been developed by the TTGNC Management Committee and should apply to all parents and supporters of TTGNC Players, Officials and Members while associated with any of the TTGNC Club activities. It outlines the standard of behaviour expected from parents and supporters, and is intended to ensure a safe, fair and enjoyable environment within the netball community.

1. CONDUCT

1.1 Actively support the efforts of all officials, coaches, managers and volunteers and treat them with respect. They give up their own time and do their best to assist in the development and enjoyment of players within the guidelines set by the Club.

1.2 Encourage players to participate and to play by the rules of the game. Support fair play.

1.3 Never ridicule or scold a player for making a mistake or if they lose a game. Professional sports people make mistakes.

1.4 Applaud all team performances regardless of win/loss. In many cases a loss can provide the most effective learning tool.

1.5 Respect the umpire's decisions and encourage players to do the same. Have you ever umpired a sport? Even professional umpires make mistakes.

1.6 Treat opponents, their officials and supporters with respect. Be a positive role model.

1.7 Remain on the sidelines throughout the match and in break time. Your support on the sidelines is vital however during the match and breaks your child should remain with their team and coach.
